FARM TO MARKET

WOOL INTEGRITY JOURNEY

Fully Traceable

PGG Wrightson Wool have a team of experienced, specialist wool representatives across New Zealand who have personal relationships with wool growers. We also have robust systems and record-keeping in place to track every farm lot in a consignment back to where the wool was grown.

Best Farming Practice

Only wool from farmers who adhere to the PGG Wrightson Integrity Program qualifies for the Wool Integrity NZ™ brand. This is your assurance that the wool has been grown to industry best practice standards and that strict animal welfare codes relating to all aspects of the care of animals have been followed. New Zealand sheep are free range and pasture fed.

Quality Inspection

When wool comes into one of our wool stores, we mechanically draw a sample of each farm lot and our own experts inspect it to determine suitability for any consignment.

Independently Tested

Each farm lot is independently sampled and tested by NZWTA or SGS Wool Testing Services. Any deviation on specification is rejected from a consignment.

Best Practice Wool Scouring

New Zealand is a world leader in wool scouring. We guarantee our wool is scoured using only NPEO free 6 Mole Detergents and no bleach has been added to enhance colour readings. This results in a clean wool that remains stable throughout further processing and manufacture.

Guarantee

Because we personally manage the selection and movement of wool from the farm gate to our customers, we guarantee each farm lot in a consignment meets the specification of the scoured type being delivered. No inferior wools are blended in.

Market

Finished products made from 100% Wool Integrity NZ™ branded scoured wool from Bloch & Behrens are eligible to carry the Wool Integrity NZ™ logo. This ingredient brand would sit alongside a manufacturer's brand providing added-value endorsement of genuine integrity.
